

Photo: Courtesy of Sun Peaks Resort/Adam Stein

Slopeside Dining

Ski hills serve up some savoury fare...

by Steven Threndyle

Big White Ski Resort (Kelowna BC)

This season Big White and Silver Star resorts are enhancing the dining experience for locals and visitors alike with the appearance of several new restaurants alongside the hill's traditional favourites.

With a simple classic interior, Gigi's is named after long-time Big White resident Gigi Farrell. This tastefully designed Italian-inspired new eatery completely renovated the former Chinese restaurant above the deli marketplace. Late night hunger pangs and live entertainment are the recipe for success at Gigi's.

6° Degrees is the perfect temperature for snow and champagne and with a cozy, tiny, dining room this newcomer to the hill will undoubtedly share six degrees of separation among its loyal patrons. It is located in the tony Stonebridge Lodge adjacent